BIBLIOTHECA · BODLEIANA

TO THE READER.

THis Catalogue Conſiſts of the Libraries of the Perſons mentioned on the Title Page, and will be ſold on the Day prefixed, for the Benefit, and at the Requeſt of ſeveral Learned Gentlemen, by whom the Books have been viewed. It's needleſs for me after their Approbation, to particularize the Valuable and Choice Books it Contains, (perhaps being as many as any Catalogue of its Bulk can hitherto pretend to have had) and as well qualified as to their Editions and Binding; which having ſaid, I promiſe to my ſelf, from the Experience I have had from former Eſſays of this Nature amongſt you, a Succeſs, in ſome meaſure, anſwerable to the honeſt and innocent Ends propoſed by your Humble Servant in the Affairs of Learning,

Edward Millington.

This Auction will begin on Monday the 21*ſt* Day of November next, 1687. at the Sign of the Black-Swan, over againſt the South Door of St. Paul's Church (amongſt the Woolen Drapers) in St. Paul's Church-Yard, continuing Day by Day, the firſt Five Days of every Week, till all the Books are ſold, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening. Con-

Conditions of SALE.

I. THat he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book, or Books, ſhall be forthwith expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That all Gentlemen, &c. Buyers, do give in not only their Sirnames, but Chriſtian, as alſo their Places of Abode, with the ſigns they Live, or Lodg at, to the end that every Perſon may have Juſtice done him in the buying, and in the delivery; which new Condition is now propoſed, to prevent the Inconveniencies that have more or leſs hitherto attended the Undertakers, and alſo the Purchaſers, by reaſon that ſeveral Perſons, out of Vanity and Oſtentation, have appeared and bought, to the damage and diſappointment of the parties they outbid; and have not been ſo kind to their own Reputation, or juſt to the Proprietors, as to pay for and fetch them away.

IV. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the place where they are ſold, where conſtant attendance ſhall be given for that Month, Day by Day, from Nine of the Clock in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two till Six in the Evening, for Receipt of the Money, and Delivery of the Books.

V. The Books, for ſatisfaction of the Buyers, will be expoſed to view for 4 days before the Sale, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six.

That for the further conveniency of the Learned Gentlemen in Cambridge and Oxford, and all other places where this Catalogue may come, who have not Friends in the City, that are proper and skilful Agents to act for them, or at leaſt cannot conſtantly attend the Auction, if they pleaſe to ſend their Commiſſions in time, containing the Page and Number of the Book ſo deſired, the Price they are willing to give for each, with Orders to whom they ſhall be delivered when bought, and of whom the Money ſhall be received, they ſhall be faithfully executed, directing their Letters to the Auction-Houſe mentioned on the Title Page,

For their humble Servant EDWARD MILLINGTON.
